

MARKET ORIENTED WELFARE SERVICES DUTCH AND SWEDISH EXPERIENCES

17th October 2008 at 2 pm – 5 pm
Paasitorni, Paasivuorenkatu 5A, Helsinki

How have market oriented welfare services worked in practise in relation to the expectations?
What have the implications for equity and democracy been?
What lessons can be learnt, in terms of how welfare markets function?

- 14.00            Welcome
- 14.10            The match between public and private, contest and cooperation
Leo van de Kerkhof, ex-director of Social Affairs, Education and Health of the Association of Netherlands' Municipalities VNG
- Discussion
- 15.20            Coffee break
- 15.40            Free Choice of Care Model in Sweden
Anne-Marie Lindgren, Research manager, Arbetarrörelsens tankesmedja
- Discussion
- 16.50            Summary and closing

Please register by October 15th to info@sorsafoundation.fi The seminar is open and free of charge.

